ACADEMY OF MEDICAL SCIENCES USSR
TO ADMIT NEW MEMBERS

The Presidium of the Academy of Medical Sciences has revealed that sometime during the latter part of January 1950 it will hold a meeting to admit nine new active members and 25 corresponding members to some of the departments of the Academy. The Department of Microbiological Sciences is to have four active and eight corresponding members, the Department of Clinical Medicine five active and 12 corresponding members, while the Department of Hygiene, Microbiology and Epidemiology will get five new corresponding members.

Candidates for active membership must be scientists who have submitted themselves to examination by the Expanded Scientific Board of the Academy of Medical Sciences in accordance with section 8 of the charter of the Academy of Medical Sciences USSR. Those whose names are submitted for membership as corresponding members must be noted Soviet scientists in the field of medicine and must come under the provisions of section 10 of the charter of the Academy of Medical Sciences USSR.

All scientific institutions, enterprises, societies, departments and laboratories may, during the next 2 months, submit the names of people whom they wish to nominate for either active or corresponding membership. Documents and letters must be submitted in accordance with section 14 of the charter of the Academy of Medical Sciences USSR.

Prior to making their final decisions, the Presidium of the Academy of Medical Sciences will require in duplicate:

1. Personal biography, history of employment, and photographs.
2. A list of the scientific works written by the candidate and a short statement showing how these works are intended to further Soviet medical science.
